Critical Intelligence Problems Committee

CIPC Meeting
1605-1645 Hours, 15 November 1983

Summary of Committee Actions

1. The Committee approved [redacted] (TOR) with the Foreign Technology section of the TOR amended as follows:

25X1

● Foreign Technology Acquisition and Retransfer

- Assimilation capabilities and impact in key mission areas (ASW, Intelligence Collection, Power Projection, Electronic Warfare, and Air Superiority).
- Retransfer of foreign technology to third countries (including likelihood, modalities, and destinations). [redacted]

25X1

2. The Committee approved the International Narcotics Coordination and Collection Study with the following changes:

● Paragraph 48 changed to read:

- The DCI should convey personally to the Intelligence Community principals his concern over the need to improve the coordination of narcotics intelligence collection in the field. [redacted]

25X1

● Paragraph 51 changed to read:

- The DCI's HUMINT Committee, in consultation with the Justice Department or other appropriate law enforcement principals should coordinate advisory tasking to field elements of those law enforcement organizations and any other non-NFIB agencies that have accepted advisory tasking concerning foreign narcotics intelligence in accordance with DCI responsibilities under EO 12333. [redacted]

25X1

● Paragraph 103 changed to read:

- The Narcotics Working Group will be constituted as a subcommittee of the CIPC to continue, on an ad hoc basis, its Community coordinating role and to monitor the progress of the recommendations. At the end of a 6-12 month period, the CIPC will review the feasibility of establishing the subcommittee as a permanent body of the CIPC. [redacted]

3. The Committee also approved recommended changes to paragraphs 11, 27, 35 and 37 as proposed by NSA, CIA/OGC and DEA respectively. [REDACTED]

25X1

4. The Committee took note of the status report submitted by the Chairman, Panel on Security Considerations, and directed that the Panel continue its efforts to develop a report for Committee consideration by January 1984. [REDACTED]

25X1

5. The Committee endorsed a proposal for the DCI's Office of General Counsel to convene a forum comprised of legal representatives from the appropriate Intelligence and Law Enforcement organizations. Such a forum, to include consultation with the Department of Justice, will review all issues and concerns relating to the protection of sources and methods in the use of classified intelligence in support of law enforcement activities. [REDACTED]

25X1

Upon conclusion of its deliberations, the results of this forum should be reported to the CIPC. [REDACTED]
